FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

February saw coronavirus (Covid-19) once more dominate the narrative, as worsening newsflow prompted alarm. The geographic spread of the infection resulted in a much more severe and broader market reaction than the move following China's initial outbreak. Both financial markets and central banks have become increasingly unanchored. For equities, the sharp fall of global markets is remarkable in terms of the speed of the drawdown witnessed in February.

The latest consensus view is that markets will remain under pressure for longer, as news related to the virus suggest that the economic impact may be greater than prior assumptions, with higher uncertainty around how growth will unfold over the next few months. Within equity markets, the latest down-leg in share prices was more indiscriminate, as we saw broader style, sector and stock participation. On a sector basis, industries that are most exposed to any short-term impact on supply chains or a slowdown in global economic activity, as well as those companies with high fixed costs were hit hard.

The L&G UK Select Equity fund underperformed its benchmark, delivering a negative return of -10.4%. Stock selection disappointed, driven by weakness in Consumer Goods and Financials. On allocation, we saw a positive impact from the overweight in Industrials. At the stock level, Aston Martin Lagonda was the biggest drag on returns. Leisure names Wizz Air and Carnival also underperformed. On the flipside, positive relative contributors were Rentokil, Weir Group and ASOS.

GAVIN LAUNDER

Gavin holds a degree in Philosophy and Economics from University College, London.

KEY RISKS

- The value of an investment and any income taken from it is not guaranteed and can go down as well as up; you may not get back the amount you originally invested.
- The return from this fund is dependent on relatively few individual investments. This means that a fall in the value of an individual investment can have a major impact on the overall performance of the fund.
- The fund could lose money if any institution providing services such as acting as counterparty to derivatives or other instruments, becomes unwilling or unable to meet its obligations to the fund.
- Derivatives are highly sensitive to changes in the value of the asset on which they are based and can increase the size of losses and gains.
- The fund may have underlying investments that are valued in currencies that are different from sterling (British pounds). Exchange rate fluctuations will impact the value of your investment. Currency hedging techniques may be applied to reduce this impact but may not entirely eliminate it.
