FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

Equities continued to deliver positive returns in June, helping to shape a strong rebound for risk assets in the second quarter. Markets broadly soaked up bad news, with increasing signs of a second wave of COVID inflections appearing to have only a temporary impact against market momentum. Early signs of a recovery in economic data, aggressive policy support from central banks and more encouraging corporate reporting have helped sentiment. Overall, despite seeing a sharp recovery, we believe the set-up remains constructive for equity markets.

We saw strong gains across the board for European equities. At the style level, we saw an extension of the market rotation into Value, however, this appeared to run out of steam by the mid-way point of June. By sector, Technology, Financials, Utilities and Industrials were the best performing parts of the market. Healthcare and Consumer Services underperformed, though still yielded a positive return.

The Fund reported a positive return of 5.3% in the period, against the benchmark return of +4.9%. Broadly, the portfolio continues to benefit significantly from its exposure to a number of long-term structural growth themes and stocks with ESG momentum. In respect of relative outperformance, this has been driven by a positive contribution from stock selection, led by strength from Consumer Goods, Consumer Services and Industrials. Sector allocation was neutral. At the stock level, positive contributors included Alfen, Shop Apotheke, Embracer Group, Pierer Mobility, SOITEC and Adyen. In respect of trading, we exited positions in CTS Eventim and Remy Cointreau.

KEY RISKS

- The value of an investment and any income taken from it is not guaranteed and can go down as well as up; you may not get back the amount you originally invested.
- The return from this fund is dependent on relatively few individual investments. This means that a fall in the value of an individual investment can have a major impact on the overall performance of the fund.
- The fund could lose money if any institution providing services such as acting as counterparty to derivatives or other instruments, becomes unwilling or unable to meet its obligations to the fund.
- Derivatives are highly sensitive to changes in the value of the asset on which they are based and can increase the size of losses and gains.
- The fund may have underlying investments that are valued in currencies that are different from sterling (British pounds). Exchange rate fluctuations will impact the value of your investment. Currency hedging techniques may be applied to reduce this impact but may not entirely eliminate it.
