LIQUIDITY MANAGEMENT

Liquidity Management (within Global Trading and Liquidity Management) forms a strategic part of our asset management capability incorporating liquidity management and secured funding.

KEY RISKS

- The value of an investment is not guaranteed and can go down as well as up; you may not get back the amount you originally invested.
- When interest rates are low and if the fund's income is not enough to pay charges, the fund's capital will be used instead. This may cause the value of the fund to fall.
- This fund holds bonds that are traded through agents, brokers or investment banks matching buyers and sellers. This makes the bonds less easy to buy and sell than investments traded on an exchange. In exceptional circumstances the fund may not be able to sell bonds and may defer withdrawals, or suspend dealing. The Directors can only delay paying out if it is in the interests of all investors and with the permission of the fund depository.
- The fund has money on deposit with companies such as banks or other financial institutions and invests in bonds which are issued by the government. If these companies or the government experience financial difficulty, they may be unable to pay back some or all of the interest, original investment or other payments that they owe. If this happens, the value of your fund may fall.
- The fund could lose money if any institution providing services such as acting as counterparty to derivatives or other instruments, becomes unwilling or unable to meet its obligations to the fund.
- Derivatives are highly sensitive to changes in the value of the asset on which they are based and can increase the size of losses and gains.
- This fund is not the same as a bank or building society account. Your money is not protected under the UK deposit protection scheme.
- We may take some or all of the ongoing charges from the fund's capital rather than the fund's income. This increases the amount of income, but it reduces the growth potential and may lead to a fall in the value of the fund.
- Investment returns on bonds are sensitive to trends in interest rate movements. Such changes will affect the value of your investment.
