FUND SUPPLEMENT

No. 54

A sub-fund of Legal & General UCITS ETF Plc, an umbrella investment company with variable capital and segregated liability between its Funds incorporated with limited liability in Ireland under registration number 459936.

The Company and the Directors, whose names appear on page 10 of the Prospectus, are the persons responsible for the information contained in this Fund Supplement and accept responsibility accordingly. To the best of the knowledge and belief of the Company and the Directors (who have taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case), the information contained in this document is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of the information.

This Fund Supplement contains information relating to the L&G Digital Payments UCITS ETF (the “Fund”) which is a separate Fund of Legal & General UCITS ETF Plc (the “Company”), an umbrella fund with segregated liability between its Funds. This Fund Supplement forms part of and should be read in the context of, and together with, the Company’s Prospectus dated 20 April 2020 and any other applicable addenda. Investors should also refer to the Company’s latest published annual report and audited financial statements (if any) and, if published after such report, a copy of the latest semi-annual report and unaudited financial statements. Capitalised expressions used and not defined in this Fund Supplement shall bear the meanings as set out in the Prospectus. If you are in any doubt about the action to be taken or the contents of this Fund Supplement, please consult your stockbroker, bank manager, lawyer, accountant or other independent professional adviser who, if such advice is taken in the United Kingdom, is an organisation or firm authorised or exempted pursuant to the FSMA.

Potential investors should consider the risk factors set out in the Prospectus and in this Fund Supplement before investing in this Fund. An investment in the Fund involves certain risks and may only be suitable for persons who are able to assume the risk of losing their entire investment.

The Prospectus sets forth information on investment risk, management and administration of the Fund, valuation, subscription, redemption and transfer procedures and details of fees and expenses payable by the Fund and should be read subject to the information herein.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

The investment objective of L&G Digital Payments UCITS ETF (the “Fund”) is to provide exposure to companies engaged in the global digital payments value-chain.

INVESTMENT POLICY

In order to achieve this investment objective, the Fund will seek to track the performance of the Solactive Digital Payments Index NTR (the “Index”), subject to the deduction of the TER and other expenses associated with operating the Fund as further described in the “Fees and Expenses” section of the Prospectus. It will do so by investing primarily in a portfolio of equity securities that, as far as possible and practicable, consists of the component securities of the Index in similar proportions to their weightings in the Index may have exposure to or invest directly up to 20% of its Net Asset Value in shares issued by the same body, which limit may be raised to 35% for a single issuer in exceptional market conditions, including (but not limited to) circumstances in which such issuer occupies a dominant market position.

Where it is not possible or practicable for the Fund to invest directly in all of the component securities of the Index (for reasons such as, but not limited to, where this would involve difficulties or substantial costs, where one or more securities in the Index becomes temporarily illiquid or unavailable, or as a result of legal restrictions or regulatory limitations that apply to the Fund but not the Index) and/or where consistent with its investment objective, the Fund may also invest in the following additional assets subject to the conditions and within the limits laid down by the Central Bank (the higher investment limits referred to above and in section 4 of Schedule III of the Prospectus applicable to index replicating funds, such as the Fund, may only be availed of when the portfolio of equity securities that the Fund invests in solely consists of the component securities of the Index):

- equity securities of companies involved in the global digital payments industry that are not component securities of the Index, but the risk and return characteristics of which, individually or collectively, closely resemble the risk and return characteristics of constituents of the Index or of the Index as a whole;
- Depositary Receipts relating either to component securities of the Index or to equity securities of the type referred to in the bullet point immediately above; and
- FDIs – namely, total return “unfunded” OTC Swaps and exchange-traded equity futures – which may be used for investment purposes (such as gaining exposure to the Index and/or any particular constituents of the Index) in accordance with the terms set out in the sections entitled “Fund Investments”, “Unfunded OTC Swap Model” and Schedule II of the Prospectus. While the Fund may invest up to 100% of its Net Asset Value in total return “unfunded” OTC Swaps, it is not expected that this flexibility will be used. The Fund will only invest in FDIs as provided for in the RMP prepared by the Investment Manager in respect of the Fund and filed with the Central Bank.

The Fund may, in addition, employ other techniques relating to transferable securities, including investing in repurchase and reverse repurchase transactions and short term money market collective investment schemes, for the purpose of efficient portfolio management only, in accordance with the terms set out in the section entitled “Efficient Portfolio Management Techniques” and Schedule II of the Prospectus. While the Fund may invest up to 100% of its Net Asset Value in repurchase and reverse repurchase transactions it is not expected that this flexibility will be used.

The maximum proportion of the Net Asset Value of the Fund that can be subject to securities lending is 10%. The proportion of the Net Asset Value of the Fund that will be subject to securities lending is expected to range from 0% to 10%.

TRACKING ERROR

The estimated anticipated (ex-ante) tracking error for the Fund in normal market conditions is 0.35% (annualised). Investors are specifically referred to the section headed “Tracking error” in the Prospectus.

SUSTAINABILITY

The Fund promotes a range of environmental and social characteristics. The characteristics promoted by the Fund are met by tracking an Index which includes the following features: exclusion of companies engaged in pure coal mining or companies that violate the UN Global Compact principles, as determined by the index provider's methodology. The Index is consistent with the environmental characteristics as it excludes such companies as set out in the "Index Description" section below.

The Manager aims to ensure that the issuers of investments in which the Fund is invested follow good governance practices. This is achieved by 1) setting expectations with the issuers' management with regard to good governance practices; 2) active engagement with the issuers; 3) utilising its voting rights; and 4) supporting policymakers and legislators to ensure a strong regulatory environment and standards. Active engagement with the issuers is used as a tool to drive progress and influence positive change and is conducted independently and in collaboration with industry peers and broader stakeholders. Engagement activities normally focus on specific material ESG issues and involve formulating an engagement strategy with regard to such issues with the aim to track and review the progress of the issuers during this process. Regular reporting on the outcomes of active engagement can be made available on request or can be found at: www.lgim.com.

TAXONOMY

While the Fund promotes environmental and social characteristics within the meaning of Article 8 of the SFDR, it does not currently commit to investing in "sustainable investments" within the meaning of the SFDR. Accordingly, it should be noted that the investments underlying this Fund do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities within the meaning of the Regulation (EU) 2020/852 (the "Taxonomy Regulation") and, as such, the Fund's portfolio alignment with the Taxonomy Regulation is not calculated.

INDEX DESCRIPTION

The Index is designed to provide exposure to equity securities of global companies that are actively engaged in the digital payments value-chain. The Index seeks to exclude companies which are (i) involved in the manufacturing of controversial weapons, (ii) persistent violators of the UN Global Compact, and/or (iii) pure coal mining companies. Such exclusions are determined by reference to the "Future World Protection List" ("FWPL") published by Legal & General Investment Management Limited which is available at <https://www.lgim.com/uk/en/capabilities/investment-stewardship/tracking-esg-progress/>.

The Index is administered and calculated by Solactive AG (the "Index Administrator").

The constituents of the Index are selected and weighted according to the construction process described below.

Determination of the Index Universe

The Index Universe consists of companies that are actively engaged in the value-chain of digital payments. "Value-chain" refers to value-creating activities within the digital payments industry such as issuing banks/card issuers, acquiring banks/acquirers, payment gateways, payment processors, payment technology providers, ancillary payment service providers and/or card less payment service providers.

Companies whose securities are eligible for inclusion in the Index Universe are determined by the Index Administrator in accordance with the process described in the Index methodology, which is available at the following web address: <https://www.solactive.com/indices/?se=1&index=DE000SL0BRN9>

1. To be eligible for inclusion in the Index, a security (each, an "Eligible Security") must not be classified as an ancillary payment service provider only and must have:

- 1.1. its primary listing on one of the global stock exchanges listed at Annex A of the Index methodology;
  - 1.2. a minimum free-float adjusted market capitalisation of USD 200 million, unless such security is an existing constituent of the Index in which case it shall have a minimum free float adjusted market capitalisation of USD 150 million to remain in the Index. "Free-float adjusted market capitalisation" is a measure of the total market value of the proportion of a company's shares that are publically traded (i.e. "floating") in the stock market as opposed to locked-in shares held by promoters, company officers, controlling-interest investors, or government authorities;
  - 1.3. a minimum three-month average daily value traded of USD 1,000,000; and
2. Each Eligible Security shall be deemed to be an Index constituent if, in respect of each such security, it is determined to be engaged in the provision of digital payment or related services, demonstrate a digital payments strategy and/or digital service innovation or is an integrated digital payments supply-chain player; and
  3. Each Eligible Security shall be deemed to be an Index constituent if, in respect of each such security, the following conditions are met:
    - 3.1. the market leadership score ranks on or above the percentile threshold specified in the Index Methodology. The "market leadership score" refers to a combined rank based on the total value and number of transactions from digital payments;
    - 3.2. the digital payment revenue percentage ranks on or above the percentile threshold specified in the Index Methodology; and
    - 3.3. the digital payment revenue percentage is at least 10%, unless such security is an existing constituent of the Index in which case the digital payment revenue percentage is at least 8%.

Weighting Allocation

All Index Constituents are equally weighted within the Index subject to any final adjustments to the weightings of the securities of the Index made to ensure that comparatively less liquid securities (but nevertheless meeting the liquidity criteria as defined in the Index methodology) are not overly represented in the Index. Please refer to the Index methodology for further information.

Net Total Return

Total return indices measure the market performance, including price performance and income from regular cash distributions (cash dividends or capital repayments). This income is treated as being reinvested in the Index and thus makes up part of the total index performance. The Index is a net total return index which means that cash dividends declared by Index constituents are reinvested in the Index net of withholding tax at the rates (depending on the country of domicile of the Index constituent) set out in the "Withholding Tax Rates" document available at: <https://www.solactive.com/documents/withholding-tax-rates-2020-09-14/>.

Rebalancing Frequency

The Index is rebalanced on a semi-annual basis on the second Friday in June and December.

Further Information

The information set out above is a summary of the principal features of the Index and does not purport to be an exhaustive description. Further information with respect to the component selection criteria, calculation and rebalancing methodology and treatment of corporate events can be found in the "Index Guideline – Solactive Digital Payments Index" which (as of the date of this Fund Supplement) is available, along with the constituents and weightings of the Index and various other informational materials, at: <https://www.solactive.com/indices/?se=1&index=DE000SL0BRN9>.

As at the date of this Fund Supplement, the Index Administrator is registered as a benchmarks administrator on the public register maintained by ESMA under the Benchmark Regulation.

Portfolio Composition

The portfolio of Investments held by the Fund is available daily at <http://www.lgimETF.com>.

PROFILE OF A TYPICAL INVESTOR

Only Authorised Participants may purchase ETF Shares in the Fund directly from the Company. All other investors may acquire or purchase ETF Shares only through the secondary market.

It is expected that investors in the Fund will be informed investors who have taken professional advice and who understand (and are able to bear) the risk of losing their investment and who can accept the levels of risks associated with investing in global equity markets, in particular companies that are actively engaged in the digital payments industry.

RISK MANAGEMENT

The Fund's global exposure, being the incremental exposure and leverage generated by the Fund through its use of FDI, shall be calculated on at least a daily basis using the commitment approach and, in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank, may at no time exceed 100% of the Fund's Net Asset Value. As noted in the "Investment Policy" section above, the Fund's use of FDI is an ancillary element of the investment policy in that it is an alternative means of gaining exposure to the Index, or one or more of the constituents of the Index, in circumstances where direct investment in the constituents of the Index is not possible, practicable or desirable. Regardless of whether exposure to the underlying constituents is obtained by direct investment in the constituents, or by gaining exposure to the constituents through the use of FDI, the same notional value shall be committed to the investment by the Fund. Accordingly, it is not expected that the Fund will be leveraged.

RISK FACTORS

Investors are specifically referred both to the section headed "Risk Factors" and to Schedule II in the Prospectus and should consider the following risk factors prior to investing in the Fund.

1. An investment in the Fund exposes an investor to the market risks associated with fluctuations in the Index and the value of securities comprised in the Index. The value of the Index can increase as well as decrease and the value of an investment will fluctuate accordingly. Investors can lose all of the capital invested in the Fund.
2. The Fund invests primarily in the equity securities of companies that are actively engaged in the global digital payments industry. Accordingly, the Fund is particularly sensitive to risks relating to such companies. These risks include, but are not limited to, small or limited markets for such securities, changes in business cycles, slow-downs in world economic growth and/or technological progress, rapid obsolescence, and government regulation. The publicly traded securities of digital payments focused companies can be more volatile than securities of companies that do not rely heavily on technology. Rapid developments in technologies that affect a company's products could have a material adverse effect on such company's operating results. Digital payments companies may rely on a combination of patents, copyrights, trademarks and trade secret laws to establish and protect their proprietary rights in their products and technologies. There can be no assurance that the steps taken by these companies to protect their proprietary rights will be adequate to prevent the misappropriation of their technology or that competitors will not independently develop technologies that are substantially equivalent or superior to such companies' technology.

THE SHARES

As at the date of this Fund Supplement, the Fund only has a single class of Shares which are ETF Shares as detailed in the table below. Additional classes of Shares may be added in the future in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank.

Share Class	Share Class Type	Minimum Subscription / Redemption Amount	TER*	Dividend policy
